HERE'S WHAT'S WANTED.

A Citizen of Honolulu Supplies the Information.

Over half the complaints of mankind originate with the kidneys.

A slight touch of backache at first. Twinges and shooting pains in the loins follow. They must be checked, they lead to graver complications. The sufferer seeks relief.

So-called kidney cures which do not touch the back.

Plasters are tried and liniments for cure.

The long looked for result seems unattainable.

If you suffer, do you want relief? Follow the plan adopted by this gentleman.

Mr. S. Hanolund, of this city, is a Custom House guard. He writes: "Having been afflicted with an aching back for some time, I procured a supply of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at Hollister & Co.'s store, and used them. The results were most satisfactory and I know that the pills are a valuable medicine for kidney complaints and especially for a lame back."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50) or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

Lot Kaulukou the "Hawaiian baritone," or "Lot Sebastiano," as the young man has decided to call himself for his career upon the operatic stage, is reported to be progressing favorably in his musical studies in San Francisco, and to have had an opportunity given him to sing the part of the baritone in the "Serenade." In a letter received by a friend from Mrs. Annis Montague Cooke who went to the Coast to watch over Kaulukou's career it is said that "his progress is certainly great and really wonderful and beyond our expectations. His voice has more than doubled in power, and the register extended many notes. The middle register has gained in prominence and resonance. Every one who hears and meets him speaks of him in the most glowing terms. He sang in a concert in Oakland before an exclusive club and made an excellent reputation. He sang the prologue from El Pagliacci with a great deal of power and artistic finish."

"The conductor of the Tivoli orchestra sent for him and gave him a hearing for the baritone part in the 'Serenade,' although another was singing the part, and told him to be ready to respond to a call for his services by telephone. He was told that he would be given the first chance possible. He has been working steadily on the Tivoli in Carmen and has now completed Valentine in Faust; Count di Lucini in Traviata, Tormio in El Pagliacci, Alvarado in the Serenade. He is also studying the baritone part in Aida. He is progressing finely in French and is developing well under physical culture treatment."

The Oakland Tribune has the following about Lot Sebastiano:

HOME CLUB ENTERTAINMENT.

It is many months since any club scored so unqualified a success as in the entertainment planned at the Home Club for the Social Settlement. Early in the afternoon a long procession of carriages might be seen winding its way to the Home Club; the procession varied now and then by the choo-chooing of an automobile bearing guests to the entertainment.

There was a spontaneous tribute of applause paid to Mr. Lot Sebastiano for his splendid singing. He did some fine work, and his friends are predicting a great success for him in grand opera, the profession he has chosen. He is a protegee of Mrs. Annis Montague, who has sung so successfully in opera.

Mr. Lot Sebastiano is certainly among the leading singers of the Coast. Mrs. Annis Montague is a sister of Mrs. S. T. Alexander, and comes here from Honolulu. She is to make her permanent home in San Francisco. Mrs. Montague was also on the program and gave in fine style the beautiful song, "Knowest Thou That Land?"

The Courier said: "The musicale at the beautiful Home Club yesterday, from which the worthy Social Settlement reaped a good sum. The day was perfect and the great auditorium was really filled with guests."

Mr. Lot Sebastiano, who is a Hawaiian, I believe, and a protegee of Mrs. Montague Turner, has really a splendid voice and sang some fine numbers. He is, I hear, to take up work upon the operatic stage, and should make a success for he has, as well as a fine voice, a splendid stage presence."

A dinner was given on Thursday evening by Miss McIntyre in honor of Miss Alice Ewart and Mr. Emil Waterman, whose engagement has been announced. Among the guests were Miss Alexander, Miss Cordie Walker, Mr. Walker, Mr. Frank Armstrong.

A delightful dance was given on Tuesday evening at the Young Hotel by Manager Lake in honor of the officers of the U. S. cruiser Buffalo. The dance was preceded by a concert on the Roof Garden given by the Buffalo's Italian band.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney will leave on the steamship Manchuria next Friday for San Francisco and will return to Honolulu in January. It is possible the Tenneys may extend their visit to New York and Washington.

The Friday evening Social Club gave a small but delightful dancing party last evening at Odd Fellows' hall. The occasion was notable because of the many pretty evening gowns worn by the debutantes.

A delightful dance was given last evening at Oahu College for the benefit of a fund for the athletic club.

POLITICS DEMOCRATS AND MOHONK CONFERENCE

The Democrats were busy spellbinding last night, meetings being held at the corner of Wyllie and Nuuanu street and at the pumping station at Kalihi.

At the Nuuanu street meeting there was a big demonstration and G. J. Waller made a rousing speech in favor of the continuance of the suffrage to the Hawaiians, reading from the press despatches of the day the full account of the Mohonk conference in which Gerham D. Gilman, W. N. Armstrong and other former residents of Hawaii advocated the alienation of the Hawaiian and asserted his incompetency for the suffrage. Mr. Waller deprecated such treatment and asked if such men as M. P. Robinson, Palmer P. Woods, Frank Harvey, Judge Kepoikai and other intelligent men of the Hawaiian race were to be placed in such a category.

He further said that for the conduct of a comparative few Hawaiians, all were not to be condemned. Mr. Waller repeated this speech at the Kalihi meeting and the Hawaiians received it with deep attention. At the Nuuanu meeting the other speakers were Madeiros, Jarret, Naha and Trent, candidates for representatives from the Fifth District.

At the pumping station there was a large crowd of Hawaiians and haoles who listened to Frank Harvey, Apua, Moore, Kamahu, Makainai, Trent and Mossman.

Tonight there will be a big meeting at the Orpheum, all English-speaking without interpreter. Clinton J. Hutchins, the erstwhile Democratic candidate of the Fifth claims he will literally flay alive Kuhio on account of his statements in the past week about what he did in Washington. Other speakers will be Kinney, Waller, Trent, Moore and Jarrett.

At Aala park Frank Harvey will take the center of the ground and be prepared to keep it as he has had the stand already placed and guarded by some vigilant constituents. He expects to confront at Aala meetings of both the Republicans and Home Rulers.

Both the above Democratic meetings for tonight will be at 7:30 sharp and music will be in attendance.

ROUSING MEETING OF PRESIDENTS

A rousing meeting of the precinct captains was held last night at the Fourth District Republican headquarters, presided over by Chairman Lorin Andrews. The hall was packed and enthusiastic addresses, started by the chairman, were the order of the evening. The meeting was short but full of meat. There were good reports as to the political situation in the Fourth. Chairman Robertson of the Central Committee was present and explained matters in connection with the official ballot. Instructions would be given to show the voters just how to mark their tickets right. Ed Towse made an address and expressed the hope that every man would get out and poll his precinct.

He announced also that there would be a rousing rally at the Orpheum on Saturday night next week, when it was hoped to have out-door as well as indoor meetings. The speakers would be the candidates and others. It was possible that Prince Kuhio would be present also to address the meeting. Special reservation would be made for ladies.

REPUBLICANS AT BETHEL ST.

The Republicans will hold a big meeting tonight at the junction of Bethel and Hotel street. The senatorial and other candidates will be present.

A Campaign Afloat.

Kailua, Oct. 20, 1904.

Editor Advertiser: The pleasantest event that has occurred in West Hawaii is the organizing by Capt. Simerson of the Mauna Loa of a Republican club at Hoopuloa, S. Kona, with the captain as president and J. Holi as vice-president. The skipper made a genuine Republican speech which carried the day.

Home Rulers on Maui.

Chas. Notley and his party went from Hawaii to Maui on the last Mauna Loa. They say they had a rousing reception at every port, exactly as did Kuhio some three weeks ago. They intend to tour Maui, Lanai and Molokai before coming back to Honolulu.

Democrats at Orpheum.

The Democrats will hold a ratification meeting at the Orpheum.

WEBSTER ARRESTED BY DETECTIVES

The following item is clipped from the San Francisco Call in the last set of files. Webster was formerly a business manager of the defunct Honolulu Republican:

F. B. Pierce, proprietor of the Princeton Hotel, 710 Jones street, procured a warrant from Police Judge Cabanis yesterday for the arrest of William Webster on a charge of defrauding an innkeeper. Pierce says Webster boarded at the hotel in July and August and disappeared without paying his bill of $39.55.

Webster represented himself as the son of wealthy parents, and impressed Pierce with his importance. He always dressed for dinner, appearing either in a tuxedo or full dress suit. His manners were polished and he was a general favorite.

After Webster left without saying even good-by Pierce made inquiries and learned that he had gone to Honolulu. Pierce kept track of him, and now that he has returned Pierce determined to have him arrested. Detectives Dinan and Wren have charge of the case.

KAUAI MURDERER

BROUGHT BY DOYLE

Chester Doyle returned from Kauai in the steamer Noeau yesterday, bringing in custody Kosai, the Japanese who killed his fellow-countryman Hamano, at Hanapepe, and made an attempt on the life of his own wife.

Kosai, according to Doyle's account, found his wife in Hamano's house and company on Sunday night. He took his wife home and when he thought she was asleep sneaked out of the house. The woman having only been feigning sleep and suspecting her husband was out on mischief went after him. She arrived at Hamano's house as her husband was shooting the man and tried to stay his murderous hand. There was a struggle between man and wife, in which the smoking revolver fell from Kosai's hand to the floor. Then Kosai grasped a knife, stabbed his wife and ran away.

Kosai went to the house of a friend, to whom he offered $50 with a request to have it sent to his relatives, saying he was going to commit suicide. The friend declined to have anything to do with him, whereupon Kosai said he would surrender to the police.

The woman was not dangerously wounded.

PRIEST PRAYS, GALLOWS READY

While Miranda is on his knees in his cell, a Catholic priest at his side reading the word of God to him, carpenters are at work in a near-by shop in the prison enclosure knocking together the gallows upon which next Wednesday he will drop to his death.

Yesterday, and every day since his incarceration, Miranda has been visited by Father Clement, the venerable priest. Prayer book in hand the doomed man passes considerable time upon his knees finding the means to an eternal peace with his God. While the priest is in his cell the grated door remains open, a guard standing near but not in view of the occupants.

The row of cells in which Miranda is confined is a gloomy one, in which eight murderers are held. The only white man is Geneau, the sailor who is alleged to have murdered the negro Harris.

ANOTHER ALLEGED FIREBUG ARRESTED

The young Portuguese, Kaina Antone Andrade, committed at Waiohina, Hawaii, for setting fire to the trash house of the Hutchinson sugar mill at Naa-lehu on August 14, in a confession to the police implicated a native named Peke Bill. A warrant was issued for Bill's arrest, under which he was brought here yesterday in the steamer Mauna Loa for safe keeping in Oahu prison until next term of the Third Circuit Court, when the two alleged incendiaries will be tried.

A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND INDEED.—That is exactly what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is. It is the mother's help when she is suddenly awakened in the night by the ominous husky cough, and labored breathing of her babe. It is the safe resort of the youth or adult when he has "caught cold" and there is coughing and irritation of the mucous membranes of the throat. It allays the irritation and cures the cold. The leviathans of the deep which have been constructed in recent years are coming to New York with enormous multitudes of steerage passengers, too many of them of extremely poor quality for future American citizenship and exceedingly difficult of assimilation. Ellis Island is overwhelmed with its burdens, and police departments and relief societies hardly know which way to turn. Cutting rates for transportation over sea has many disagreeable sequels.
